Learn from the way
the wild flowers grow.
They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them. If God clothes the grass of the field, will he not much
more provide for you,
O you of little faith?

Seek first the Kingdom of God!

Fast and Abstinence: All Catholics who have reached their fourteenth year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of eighteen and fifty-nine inclusive are bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day.

From The Pastor's Desk

Catholic Ministries Appeal: I receive regular reports on the progress of our annual Appeal which has started again for 2011. I am pleased that in such a short time, our parish has reached very close to half of our goal. Last year we exceeded our goal and our parish received a rebate of $6,433. More importantly, we contributed to the work of God on Long Island in various areas. The work remains the same and the needs only increase. A donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps Catholic Charities. It provides Pastoral Outreach, assists Catholic Education and Formation for Ministry. It contributes toward our Diocesan Mission in the Dominican Republic; Fr. John Cervini and the Sisters who work with him there were able to reach out over the mountains and assist the poor people of Haiti after the earthquake they suffered. Literally tens of thousands of people are helped by your contribution to the Catholic Ministries Appeal both here on Long Island and far from here. Thank you and if you have not already done so, please make a generous contribution.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 9, 2011. This is an invitation from God and His Church to turn toward Him more than we probably have been doing. You would have an excellent Lent if you were to participate in these activities to the degree that your faith and generosity would dictate.

Daily Mass at 9:00 a.m. Monday thru Friday; on Ash Wednesday, Mass only at 7:30 p.m.
Presumed, of course, is Mass every Saturday evening or Sunday morning.

Public Rosary following 9:00 a.m. Mass.

Eucharistic Exposition and Adoration every Friday after 9:00 a.m. Mass.

In the evenings of First Friday: St. Pio Prayer at 7:00 p.m. with confession, Holy Hour, Mass, Divine Mercy Chaplet and refreshments.

EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Is 49:14–15 / 1 Cor 4:1–5 / Mt 6:24–34

You've probably heard the phrase "elephants never forget." A Google search reveals it to be backed by science: Research shows that elephants have incredible memories for human faces, fellow elephants, food locations and burial sites. We human beings have to rely on nutritional supplements in hopes of training our memories to resemble that of an elephant's.

Fortunately, God has a memory that bests that of even the most remarkable elephant. In our first reading today, Isaiah uses the image of a mother tenderly nursing her infant, forming a seemingly unbreakable bond, to describe our relationship with God. Yet, Isaiah claims, even if a human mother forgets or abandons her child, God never forgets us.

The next line of the reading is one of my favorites: "Upon the palms of my hands I have written your name." God has inscribed us into God's very self. Forgetting us isn't in the realm of possibility. We are treasured, provided for, watched over, and loved beyond our dreams.

Despite the supplements we might take, our memories are neither as sharp as an elephant's nor as far-reaching as God's. Jesus reminds us in the Gospel that the worries of our daily lives distract us from remembering God's ongoing goodness to us. Worrying not only doesn't add a moment to our lifespan, but it also can cause us to forget the place we hold in God's heart—a place so intimate that our every need and desire is known.

We spend an immense amount of energy worrying. Jesus challenges us to shift that energy into sharpening our memory of where we belong—carved in God's hand. When we remember that, trusting God with our many needs becomes a little easier—and maybe even something we can work to never forget.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Month One Developing Baby

Your spiritually adopted baby has been quite active over the past month. Already your baby is 10,000 times bigger than at conception. Your baby has developed the foundations of his brain, spinal cord, and nervous system by the 20th day. Her heart began to beat on the 21st day. Her heart is pumping blood through its own circulatory system and the blood type can be different from the mother's. Your baby is most vulnerable during the next month of being aborted. Pray that the Lord of Life might move the heart of the mother to give her baby the most precious gift of all - the gift of life.
