EVERYONE WHO LISTENS
TO THESE WORDS OF MINE
AND ACTS ON THEM
WILL BE LIKE A WISE MAN
WHO BUILT HIS HOUSE
ON A ROCK.

THE RAIN FELL,
THE WATERS CAME
AND THE WINDS BLEW
AGAINST IT. BUT IT DID
NOT COLLAPSE:
IT HAD BEEN BUILT SOLIDLY ON ROCK.

Fast and Abstinence: All Catholics who have reached their fourteenth year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of eighteen and fifty-nine inclusive are bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day.

From The Pastor's Desk

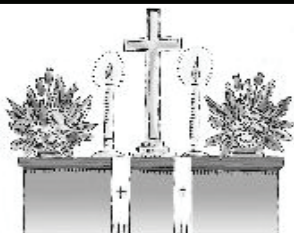

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 9, 2011. This is an invitation from God and His Church to turn toward Him more deeply.

The Bible: For any person who takes God seriously, the Bible should play a central role in their life. For every Catholic, the Bible should play a large role in their observance of Lent. The Bible contains much interesting and exciting reading. Some months ago I put in the bulletin a little exercise that should challenge you and hopefully deepen your interest in the Bible. There are the names of 16 books of the Bible mentioned in the paragraph below. See how many you can find without using a Bible. When you give up, you may check the Bible. The letters of the name of a book of the Bible may be joined to other letters in a word or two words or even three words, such as ROMANSki or JOE Louis and they may be separated by a punctuation mark or a space or two. See how you do; answers are found elsewhere in this bulletin.

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu; kept people looking so hard for facts...and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the names of the books were not capitalized. But the truth finally struck home to numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others may require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea so she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Relax now, for there really are sixteen names of books of the Bible in this paragraph.

Deepening our faith through the new Missal is the title of an excellent article Bishop Murphy has written in the Long Island Catholic about the changes in the wording of the Mass that will begin in November of this year. The Mass has a 2,000 year history and has been modified from time to time by the Church down through the ages. These latest changes have been in the works for at least the past ten years. All that is involved cannot be summarized in the brief format of a weekly bulletin. If anyone is interested in delving more deeply into the study of the Church's Liturgy and these changes that are soon to come, I would suggest (1) be sure you receive and read our Diocesan newspaper, The Long Island Catholic. (2) Subscribe to and read The Adoremus Bulletin: PO Box 300561, St. Louis, MO 63130 (www.adoremus.org). (3) Go on the internet to www.dignumetium.blogspot.com.

NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dt 11:18, 26–28, 32 / Rom 3:21–25, 28 / Mt 7:21–27

As a new homeowner, I cringed with familiar fear at Jesus' words today. Within the past six months our water heater began leaking, our electrical box burned up, our furnace died, and our microwave went kaput. Jesus' talk of torrential rain and winds buffeting a house reminded me that we're anticipating roof leaks and that some trees are leaning precariously toward our home. Owning a home can leave you feeling quite anxious. But planning ahead—ensuring a solid foundation, buying insurance, continuing maintenance—helps homeowners live with greater peace of mind.

Jesus uses this home-construction metaphor today to conclude his Sermon on the Mount. He calls on his audience not just to listen to his words, but to act on them and make them the firm foundation of their lives. This isn't about occasionally doing nice things for others. It's about establishing a regular pattern of following Jesus, making daily choices to develop a habit of discipleship. It's hard and ongoing work.

Yet as we know, even Jesus' most focused disciples can't avoid the torrential rains and buffeting winds of life. Just as insurance or a solid foundation can't prevent a tornado from tearing off a roof, struggles, suffering, and tragedies happen to all people no matter how closely they follow Jesus.

Jesus didn't promise that the house of an active disciple wouldn't endure suffering; he simply promised it would be sustained through life's frightening storms. Regular patterns of prayer, trust in God, outreach to others, and spiritual practices keep disciples rooted in God and strong in times of distress. Given that perspective, how might you strengthen your foundation today?

SPIRITUAL
ADOPTION
PROGRAM

Month One Developing Baby

Your spiritually adopted baby has been quite active over the past month. Already your baby is 10,000 times bigger than at conception. Your baby has developed the foundations of his brain, spinal cord, and nervous system by the 20th day. Her heart began to beat on the 21st day. Her heart is pumping blood through its own circulatory system and the blood type can be different from the mother's. Your baby is most vulnerable during the next month of being aborted. Pray that the Lord of Life might move the heart of the mother to give her baby the most precious gift of all - the gift of life.
