*Happy Birthday
Spiritually Adopted Baby*

Gift of Love

Parish Celebration of Life

Our Spiritual Adoption Program ends Today - Respect Life Sunday

To commemorate the “birth” of our spiritually adopted babies, we would ask that you bring an unwrapped “Gift of Love” when you come to church on the weekends of October 1 & 2 or October 8 & 9, 2011. Some items in great need are diapers and wipes, stretchies, undershirts, crib blankets and sheets and lotions. We will also accept cash donations. Your generous donations will be greatly appreciated by truly needy mothers and their precious infants. Please leave your gift in the bassinet in Mary’s Corner in the narthex.

This is a wonderful way to begin a month dedicated to Mary, Mother of God, recognizing and upholding the value and dignity of human life from conception to natural death.

We have the chance to live the words of Jesus, “Amen, I say to you, whatsoever you did for one of these, the least of my brethren, you did it for me.”

Respect Life Sunday

Today - Pro-Life March -Route 110

On Sunday October 2, 2011, Pro-Life Groups of our Diocese and all Catholics are invited to Stand Up for Life on Route 110 in Huntington Station, to show support for our belief that all human beings are created by God, with dignity, and once conceived, have a right to life until natural death.

Please join with other Catholics throughout the Diocese anywhere along Route 110 from Jericho Turnpike south, beginning at 2:00 PM. Holy Name parishioners are stationed a little south of the TGIF area. For further information, please call Charlene at (631) 659-3197.

We, as Catholics, are one of the largest groups of people who stand up for life. We ask that you search your conscience and make every effort to make an appearance.

If not you, then who?

As Irish statesman Edmund Burke said many years ago,
“All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.”

We Catholics must take a stand on this issue.

Cantors at Mass: Among the many Good Stewards who contribute so generously and regularly to Holy Name of Jesus Church in Woodbury are our Cantors, our Leaders of Song. We have heard much about Good Stewards contributing of their time, talent and/or treasure and our Cantors do this in an important way. Our two main cantors have been Russell Lasneski and Diana Regino. We also have had recently Toni Romas. Now we have a new cantor who plans to sing at the 10:30 Mass on Sunday. Her name is Kathleen Kampel. She has been a professional singer working throughout the United States and Europe for the past 30 years, singing for weddings, funerals, parties and special occasions. She has performed at many venues over the years. She has performed as Soprano Soloist with the Long Island Pops Orchestra, as a Member of the pop duo Two's Company, Steven Scott Orchestras and Opera Pro Voce. She has had solo performances in England, Italy, Israel and Canada. Kathleen looks forward to being part of the music ministry at Holy Name of Jesus Church. Thank you to our Cantors.

New Roman Missal: We will continue to hear about the new translation of some of the words of the Mass. The new translation will begin at the 5:15 Mass on November 26, 2011 that will begin the Season of Advent. Some of the changes will be very minor and hardly noticeable and some will be stark and confusing. The important thing to keep in mind is that this will begin a time when we are invited and challenged to give more attention to what we are saying or hearing when we participate in Mass. There is an axiom that says in Latin, "Lex orandi, lex credendi." This means that the way we pray is the way we believe. The words that we use in praying reflect what we believe. Down through the centuries, the Church has been very careful in choosing the words for its official prayers. Another important principle to remember is that when we are talking about an official prayer of the Church, different rules apply than when we are praying privately. When we pray to God privately, we have every right to be ourselves; we can and should use our own words and thoughts and communicate sincerely with God who knows our inmost thoughts. When, however, we have the Mass, the Church has made it clear that this is THE prayer of the Church and no one, not a Priest or even an individual Bishop, has the right to add, subtract or change anything in the Mass. The coming changes have the potential to deepen our knowledge and appreciation of our faith. They will invite us to return again and again to the Scriptures and to open our minds and our hearts to all that God, through His Church, wants to communicate to us.

October 2, 2011*TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Is 5:1-7 / Phil 4:6-9 / Mt 21:33-43

Several summers ago I spent one day—not nearly enough time for this wine lover—in Napa Valley. I toured a winery and was fascinated by the detailed attention the grapes received during harvest. Each grape is individually hand-picked at a temperature and time conducive to producing the most succulent wine. Such tender handiwork!

The vineyard stories that dominate today's readings reveal the owners' similar attentive care in establishing and tending their vines. Unfortunately, neither story ends with someone peacefully sipping a glass of Cabernet at sunset. Both reveal a betrayal of the tender care of the owner, who represents God the Father.

Grapes grow wild in the Isaiah reading. In the Gospel, the hired tenants murder the owner's servants and then—foreshadowing Jesus' death—the owner's son. Destruction is left in what was so tenderly built, pruned and nurtured.

It isn't difficult to connect these stories with our lives. We know God has tenderly cared for, nurtured and provided for us. We need only look at our many material gifts and incredible people he has blessed us with. God has never stopped "handpicking" us with incredible tenderness.

But we're often the wild grapes or the rebellious tenants. We reject God's love by being ungrateful for his numerous gifts, instead claiming we deserve more. We sin by our disrespect—even hatred—of others who are his beloved children. We abuse the gift of God's creation by ignoring environmental needs and pursuing our own gains.

Today's readings challenge us to remember the vineyard owner's caring hand and God's tender love. Recalling God's ongoing goodness can help us break our sinful patterns and respond gratefully to him.

Food Pantry Needs

Our parish food pantry needs re-stocking. At this time, we suggest:

Cans of fruit, juices, soups,
canned tuna and/or chicken
salad dressing, peanut butter, jams & jellies rice, pasta and pasta sauce,
snacks, boxed cereal,
canned vegetables, all types of beans
and saltine crackers.

The above or any canned or boxed food item you may wish to donate would be greatly appreciated.

Please place your donations in the basket in the narthex of the church. Thank you.
